THE FRENCH REPUBLIC.

We copy the following special dispatch to the New York World of Tuesday, as containing information of interest regarding the course of events now going on beyond the waters:

OSTEND.—September 5.—The Republic has been proclaimed in Paris. On the train which left Paris this morning and reached Ostend this evening by way of Lille, the mail carriage came with the Imperial arms effaced and the legend Poste Nationale Francaise. In Paris yesterday evening the approaches to the Palace of the Legislature were guarded by detachments of the line and squadrons of the Gendarmerie. The Guards of Paris and the National Guard occupied the centre of the Pont de la Concorde, and were formed in squares around the centre of the Place de la Concorde. No vehicles were allowed to traverse the Place de la Concorde. The Champs Elysees were cleared of all carriages, and a cordon of National Guards stretched across them at the Royal Point. After the dissolution of the sitting, a number of persons gradually assembled on the grand staircase within the Legislative Palace, and finally came out on the portico in front, waving their hats and shouting "Down with the Empire!" "Long live the Republic!" These shouts were not echoed by the troops, but the demonstration was taken up by crowds on the quays, and by other crowds in the Rue Royale and along the Rue de Rivoli by the gardens of the Tuileries. These crowds were a compact mass from just beyond the Obelisk of Luxor quite down the Rue Royale to the Rue St. Honore, and down the Rue de Rivoli to the Rue Castiglione. The shops were not shut, and there was no disorder beyond that merely incident to the presence of so great a multitude. About 6 o'clock the National Guard and the troops of the line nearest the Legislative Palace began to show signs of sympathy with the people. Shakos were raised on the bayonets, and cries uttered here and there of "Death to the Prussians!" "Long live France!" shortly after a column, perhaps a thousand strong, of National Guards, fully uniformed and equipped, with a band playing the "Marseillise," came down the line of the quays from the Point des Arts, and pressed on to the Legislative Palace. The gate-keepers made some resistance, but finally gave way, and the people pressing in after the troops, the whole enclosure was rapidly filled, and the multitude, the troops still in the front, and in perfect order, surrounded the whole building, and passed into the doorways and up the numerous stairways, a number even invading the buildings appropriated to the residence of the Counsellors of State and other officials. The cries of the multitude were incessant. The Emperor's name was never mentioned, not even in cries for his downfall. The Deputies of the Left came out of the hall to meet the people. Men embraced each other, with cries of joy, shouting, "Long live France!" The Deputies of the Left were soon gathered in a body, and set off, amid cries of "Al'Hotel de Ville," for the Municipal Palace. Two stalwart workmen in blouses and as many National Guards in uniform seized Mesdames Picard and Gambetta, raised them in the air, and carried them as in triumph to the Hotel de Ville. The scene on their arrival was most impressive. Some one had mounted the towers of Notre Dame, and from each of the gray piles floated three or four tricolor flags. The gilded colossal lamps of the Place de l'Hotel de Ville were wreathed in flags, and high up on each was perched a boy waving a tricolor.

The vast Place itself was a dense mass of people, mingling with whom everywhere were the uniforms and bayonets of the National Guard and of the line. As the deputies advanced or were borne up to the facade of the vast building, Henri Rochefort came out to meet them, holding out both hands, with a cry of "Vive La Republique!" At the same moment half a dozen men burst open from within a window in the facade and began throwing out a great cloud of small, white papers, crying as they did so, "These are the votes of the plebis cite!" Then for the first time went up a great cry from the whole vast crowd of "Down with the Empire!" It was taken up and sent, with a noise like the roaring of waves, along the quays and along the Rue de Rivoli, both towards the Louvre and towards the ancient City of Paris. Down the great Boulevard de Sebastopol a procession of several thousand troops, surrounded by crowds of men, women, and children, advanced with bands of music. The procession and its wings filled the enormous street from front to front of the houses on either side, and the music of the bands was accompanied by the whole mass singing the "Marseillaise." In all this time and in all these places the shops were still kept open; the police were swept in with the processions or quietly disarmed. I heard of and I saw no case of violence, no disorder, no robbery. Everywhere the deepest excitement and the most extraordinary improvised public order. The Imperial arms were torn down from all the public buildings, and in one or two cases the windows of shops were broken which contained them. In the Rue Vivienne a well-known milliner's establishment was thus menaced, but the proprietress came out and remonstrated with the leaders, holding up a gold Napoleon, and saying, "If that passes today, why shall my windows be broken?" The men cheered and laughed, the woman cried "Vive la Republique!" and the crowd passed on. One gate of the Tuileries on the side of the Seine was burst open, and the crowd poured in; but forbore to enter the palace on the appearance of M. Emmanuel Arago, who came out to meet them, and said: "Citizens, the Empress left Paris at midnight. The palace, the property of the people, is under the protection of liberty and of the law." The crowd cheered immensely; guards of the National Guard were posted at the gates. The Republic was proclaimed immediately afterwards at the Hotel de Ville, with the following list of the Provisional Ministry:

Interior—M. Gambetta.
Foreign Affairs—M. Jules Favre.
Finances—M. Magne.
Public Instruction—M. Jules Simon.
Justice—M. Cremieux.
War—General Leflo.
President of the Council of State—M. Grevy.
Secretary-General—M. La Vertugon.
Governor of Paris—General Trochu.

Messieurs Glais Bizoin, Pelletan, Ernest Picard, Rochefort, and Garnier-Pages have also places in the administration. M. de Keratry has been appointed Prefect of Police, and Emmanuel Arago Mayor of Paris. In response to the Prussian appropriation of that province, Messieurs Valentin and Engelhart have been appointed Civil and Military Commissioners of Alsace.

If the Republicans want to make any headway in the coming election in this State, they must cut all connection with Grant's Administration, and take strong ground against putting a man at the head of the State Department who makes $60,000 by a single bribe.—N. Y. Sun, Republican.

PETRIFIED LEVIATHAN WEIGHING TEN TONS.

[From the White Pine (Nev.) News.]

About one hundred miles to the South east of Hamilton is a high plateau of land, containing an extensive deposit of marine shells and the fossil remains of a large variety of extinct species of fish. But the curiosity which most challenges the interest and investigation of antiquaries is the petrified form of what was evidently once an immense sea monster. It lies on a high plateau in a position giving rise to the theory that its locale was once a great shoal, and that this antediluvian leviathan floundered and perished on the surface as the water receded. The petrification is perfect, and is estimated to weigh about ten tons. It presents a dual appearance, the head and body that of a humpback whale, and, the extremities extended into feelers and antennæ like the polypus or devil fish, with the exception that they were evidently, during life, lined with a hard and bony substance. The eyes were set in each side of the head, which is flat and oblong, and some twenty-four inches apart. The mouth is armed with triple rows of teeth, which are sharp in front, but underneath and well into the jaw they turn into grinders, capped by a solid osseous formation, running back from the widest portion of the head. In this respect it resembles the celebrated marsh cow of Central America, amphibious in its habit—graminivorous on land, and carnivorous in water. The length of this singular relic of an unknown race has not as yet been determined; but as the body blends into the tail it tapers down to so small a size that, making due allowance, its entire weight would not be far from that stated.

DECHEANCE.—To those of our readers unacquainted with the French language, who may not appreciate the exact force of the word decheance which occurs so frequently in cable dispatches from Paris, it may be well to say that it is intended to signify the failure or extinction of an institution or right by reason of the forfeiture of the condition upon which its existence depends. Apparently the Parisian populace, and those of the deputies voting in accord with them, regard the empire in a state of dechesance, as having failed, in other words, the imperial dynasey as having become forfeited and extinct.

WHO ARE THE KU KLUX?

It is perfectly manifest that Holden, Pearson, Dick, Settle and others are anxious to fix a stain upon every man who connected himself with the "Constitutional Union Guards" or "White Brotherhood," or any and all Democratic secret organizations and to attach to him all the reproach which they have attempted to heap upon the so-called Ku Klux.

Why this? What stain attaches to any of the secret organizations of Democrats and Conservatives, more than to the Loyal Leagues and Heroes of America, among the Republicans and Radicals? Were they not equally secret and political, yet at the time, lawful? Did not Holden feel proud of his being king of the Loyal Leagues?—Did not the existence and conduct of the Leagues under his control, provoke the formation of the Democratic secret organizations? Did not the Ku Kluxism of the Leagues and Heroes of America first provoke and excite in retaliation the Ku Kluxism on the other side. The very first act of Ku Kluxism in North Carolina was that of a Loyal League. It is the first case and the only clear case yet proven in North Carolina, in which a colored citizen was beaten or injured for voting as he pleased. Every one will recollect the case in Wilson County in which a colored man who voted the Conservative ticket in 1868, was ordered by the Loyal League there to be taken out and whipped for it. The committee was appointed to whip him, and they actually gave him 300 lashes as was proven before Judge Thomas in Wilson Superior Court. The whole case was investigated and the parties were convicted and sentenced by Judge Thomas to six or 12 months imprisonment, but Holden, being then king of the Loyal Leagues, pardoned them in a short time and set them free. That was one of the first cases in the State of Radical Ku Kluxism—the first case of any kind of Ku Kluxism done from political motives, and that act and others gave rise to Democratic Ku Kluxism in retaliation. The barn burnings, robberies, house breakings and rapes committed in every instance by negroes and mean whites, by members of the Leagues and which were not punished according to law by our Radical Judges, Radical Solicitors and Radical Governor, gave rise to the retaliations of the Democrats.

So far as we can learn the truth in this matter, Ku Kluxism had nothing to do with the formation of the "Constitutional Union Guards," or the "White Brotherhood," or any other secret political organization with which Conservatives or Democrats have been connected. In their origin they were purely political and perfectly legitimate in their objects, and were designed purely to counteract the influence of the "Union Leagues," "Heroes of America," "Wide Awakes," &c., by combining in close compact and agreement every Anti-Radical who would join them. It was so no doubt in the origin of the Loyal Leagues. No lawlessness perhaps was intended—no assumptions of power to punish for any offence at first entered the heads of their originators, but when they came to be controlled by bad men, evil results have followed.

The Democratic secret organizations were formed just before the Presidential election. They had been formed only in a few Counties when the Presidential election came on, and their overwhelming defeat, led to their general abandonment. A few of the original members perhaps of the "White Brotherhood" probably continued to meet in Alamance and in one or more Counties after this, and when those barn-burnings, robberies, rapes, &c., became so common, some of the members of the old Democratic organizations began to revive their signs and thus commenced, we judge, the wicked acts of the Democratic Ku Klux, in retaliation of the wicked acts of the Radical Ku Klux. This is our opinion of the origin of the whole difficulty. There has been no regular Ku Klux organization, except as it has been improvised in particular neighborhoods, to retaliate upon others, &c. The attempt to prove what Holden set out to prove before Judge Pearson, was a ridiculous failure and farce!

SCHOOL BOOKS.

"In a private letter to a friend, Hon. Alex. H. Stephens says that he is slowly regaining his health, and is now busily engaged in writing a school history of the United States."

We are glad to see the above. The Southern people greatly need good School books for their children. The whole series of School books prepared at the North are more or less offensive to Southern readers, and this is especially the case in all the school histories of the United States now extant. We want no school books which serve to perpetuate discord and ill-feeling between the North and South. So far from it, we desire that every thing which in the slightest degree tends to produce this, shall be obliterated; and this is the reason why we object to Northern school books for Southern children. No Southerner can read them without feeling incensed at the suppression of truths, or the presentation of falsehoods, or the partial details which are given profusely in them, and which can only tend to irritate and disturb Southern people. Our practical teachers and good writers cannot therefore do a better service than to get up school books for our own people, but which shall not be offensive to Northern people, to take the place of the school books now in vogue. Let us have them as soon as possible. Under carpet-bag influences, the books selected for the public schools of the South, are seriously liable to the objection stated above.

SEEKING INFORMATION.

We were called on yesterday by two very respectable looking colored men from South Carolina, Hosea Wynn, a Democrat, and Casey Davids, a Republican. They came to this State to learn, from personal observation and inquiry, the condition and prospects of the colored people here, since the election. The reason of the visit, as stated by them, is, that in South Carolina Radical leaders and stump speakers have spread the report, that in North Carolina, since the election, the colored people have been greatly restrained of their privileges, that they are not allowed to go from place to place without written passes, and that efforts are being put forth by the Conservative party, to deprive them, as far as possible, of their rights before the law. These statements being so boldly and constantly made by the Radical leaders in South Carolina, the colored people very wisely and prudently determined to send out these agents to ascertain if these things were so. We have advised them to converse freely and fully with all parties and classes, and to remain in the State a sufficient length of time to gain full information on the points in question.

These colored men come well endorsed by leading gentlemen in South Carolina and we bespeak for them here, every facility that can be afforded for the accomplishment of their mission.

PREMIUM LISTS.—A list of the Premiums offered by the State Agricultural Society for the Fair this Fall, can be had on application to J. J. Litchford, Corresponding Secretary, Raleigh, N. C. Let every one who has anything good in the animal, vegetable or mineral line, specimens of the fine arts, curiosities natural or artificial, or anything else good and pretty, send and get a Premium list and inform himself or herself of the necessary steps to be taken to put any of these things in competition for a prize. If you have nothing else to show, put on your good clothes and come and exhibit yourself, enjoy the festive occasion and return home wiser and better men and women.

THE STATE FAIR GROUNDS.—We have heard, (for we have not had the chance to go and see, and besides it is too far to walk,) that Messrs. Wynne and Hayes and Sheriff Lee, have, at their own expense put the Fair Grounds track in first rate trotting order; that they have leveled the inequalities, filled the washes made by the rains since the last Fair, and sanded it over nicely. It is further said that there is some very good trotting indulged in there by some of the amateur Bonners of the city, on almost any pleasant afternoon.

Tuesday morning last, one Willis Bunn, col., member elect to the House of Representatives from Edgecombe county, marched into Battleboro' at the head of half a dozen armed negroes and reported to K. C. Pope, Justice of the Peace, telling his Worship, that somebody had told him that there would be a great "fusteration" after the election and he wanted, after the fashion of our "beloved," to "nip the treason in the bud." The Justice assured Bunn that there were no grounds for apprehension and advised him to dismiss his men quietly, which was accordingly done.

Ben Goodman, the Radical Postmaster at Williamston, was detected appropriating to personal uses funds passing through his office belonging to other parties. Finding that detection was about to overtake him he borrowed all the money he could, some forty dollars, and endeavored to put out for "parts unknown;" but fortunately was overhauled at Rocky Mount and carried back to Williamston. Goodman was elected Register of Deeds for Martin county, but was unable to give the required bond.

The Stockholders of the Edenton and Norfolk R. R. Co., will meet in Edenton on the 15th inst. It is stated that $90,000 have been subscribed to this enterprise in two counties of that section.

A Bank has been organized at Tarboro' under the name and style of the "Bank of Tarboro'." The following gentlemen were chosen Commissioners: Jno. T. Pickrell, Geo. Howard, W. H. Johnson, W. G. Lewis and R. Whitehurst, and announce that books of subscription to the capital stock are opened.

We learn from the Tarboro' Southerner that work upon the Wilmington and Tarboro' Railroad is progressing finely.

It is expected that Associate Justices Dick and Settle, of the Supreme Court, will hear at Chambers, in Greensboro', the arguments in the matter of the Bench warrants issued for Kirk, Burgen and others, on Monday next.

GEORGE W. KIRK, VENTILATED.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—As illustrative of the history of the times, permit me to give your readers an unvarnished statement of what I know of the life and character of the commander of one of the regiments of Gov. Holden's State Troops—Col. GEORGE W. KIRK.

The facts now made known were purposely withheld till after the election, lest their publication might unduly excite the public mind and thereby thwart the patriotic efforts of yourself, Mr. Editor, and the hundreds of good men who co-operated with you, to preserve the peace and good order of the State. But now that the election is over, and peace secured, I think it eminently proper that the people of North Carolina should know the character of the man, whom Gov. Holden selected to carry out his diabolical purpose of pulling down the simplest liberty in our once good Old North State.

I hasten, therefore, to begin this statement with the EARLY LIFE OF GEO. W. KIRK.

As to his birth place, reports differ. North Carolinians insist that he first saw the light in East Tennessee; while Tennesseans say he was certainly born in North Carolina. Suffice it to say of this, however, that he was unfortunately born somewhere, and that, from his childhood, he gave promise of the infamy with which he has since covered himself. Destitute of early culture and training, he advanced steadily to manhood in the same downward course that he had pursued from the time he first set out on the journey of life. Arriving at that period, he began to look about for the first time, for some employment by which to make a living. He chose for his avocation the honest and honorable trade of a shoemaker. In that business it is said, he succeeded very well until he was suspected of fraudulently appropriating the leather of his employers. To such an extent did he carry the "little fault" referred to, that I am credibly informed, he was actually discharged from the employ of a Mr. Broyles of Green County, Tennessee. I reluctantly refer to this part of Kirk's life, but I deem it necessary, in order that the deep malignity of his appointment by Holden, may be clearly seen. I will however, leave unsaid a great deal that might be said and come to the beginning of the war, when the unnatural and inhuman traits of his character seem to have attained their full development. During the first year of the war, Kirk skulked in the woods, not identifying himself with either side of the belligerents. On account of his frequent raids on the defenceless women and children of the mountainous districts of his State—Tennessee—he was forced to seek shelter in the Laurel Mountains of Madison County in North Carolina. Finding there quite a number of desperate men like himself, he organized a marauding band, and with it began to make himself the "soldier and patriot" that the Standard says he is, by making the county seat of Madison. This raid is known in this part of the country as "Kirk's Salt Raid," the chief damage done having been the carrying off a large quantity of salt deposited there for the use of the wives and children of Confederate and Federal soldiers. Many trunks and drawers however, were broken open and robbed of their contents. Suffice it to add of this raid, that Kirk was immediately present taking an active part in all that was done.

Returning to their mountain dens, Kirk and his band made frequent raids on the settlements in Tennessee and North Carolina contiguous to the Laurel country.—That part of Tennessee known as Indian Creek in Washington County, suffered perhaps more than any other section. All the able bodied men there had gone to the army, and the country was consequently defenceless. Kirk and his marauders therefore, had things their own way, and that "way"—in shame be it said—was one of crime that has no parallel in the history of civilization.

Women and children were robbed of not only their last bushel of meal and pound of meat, but of their beds and wearing clothes! The feathers were, in many cases, poured out from the bed ticks on the floor, and the "ticks" filled with the clothing of the women and children and carried away. Helpless mothers and aged men were robbed of their shoes in many instances and left bare-foot! Well do I remember how the helpless bit their lips on learning that Kirk had pulled the shoes from the feet of old Uncle John Brown of Indian Creek, a man of 85 years of age. Nor have I forgotten that Kirk, in person, met George Brown in the road and with threats of instant death, compelled him to pull the shoes from his feet and give them to him, who placed them on his own unhallowed feet. But I will not trouble the reader with further details, though I might give hundreds of other instances like those just recited. It is proper, however, to add that if any one doubts the correctness of what I have said in this connection, I can produce the affidavits of twenty-five credible ladies and gentlemen, showing that I have not told the half of what is chargeable to Kirk and his marauders.

Having shown that Kirk, before he belonged to any army, carried on the business of robbing and plundering women and children, I will now proceed to show that he at one time

MURDERED SEVEN MEN.

This is a grave charge, I know, but it is nevertheless true. I knew all the men, their names were Presley Blankinship, La Fayette Blakinship, Daniel Justice, Jackson Southerner, John Franks, Reuben Woodward, and Marion Ramsey. The facts are these: The outrages perpetrated on the citizens of Indian Creek, by Kirk and his band, were so great that the former determined to remove to North Carolina. Fearing they would be murdered in the attempt to do so, they appealed to Col. Palmer, then commanding the Western Division of North Carolina, for aid. That officer accordingly sent a detachment of his troops under Lieut. Daryck, to Indian Creek. A small squad of these soldiers, encamped near Mr. Presley Blankinship's, were surprised by Kirk and his band. Being overwhelmed by superior numbers, they indicated a willingness to surrender. But the squad was fired into nevertheless, John Franks and Jackson Southerner, being killed outright, and Reuben Woodward so badly wounded that he could not get away. The two Blankinships and Marion Ramsey attempted to make their escape but were overtaken and murdered notwithstanding their earnest cries for mercy. The two former were citizens and had never been guilty of any offence, except to sympathize with the Confederate cause.

They next went to a field near by, where they found Daniel Justice chopping firewood. They demanded his name, and on being told that it was Justice they ordered him to go down the hill to where they were. Justice expressed fears, but was assured by them that he should not be hurt. He then started towards them but had not proceeded far when they halted him and deliberately filled his breast with bullets!—Having now killed all but one of the squad, they returned to where poor Woodward lay on the ground, bleeding and almost exhausted from his wound. Having told him they had come to kill him, he entreated them in the most earnest and piteous manner not to do so. His father also, who was a prisoner, begged them to spare the life of his son. But with cocked pistols presented at the father, they ordered him not to open his mouth again, and then deliberately placing the muzzle of a gun against the head of his wounded son, fired, literally blowing off the top of his head! Thus seven men were inhumanly butchered by order of George W. Kirk, now a Colonel of Holden's State Troops. What excuse Kirk pretended to have for the murders, I do not know; he certainly had no sufficient or even plausible excuse. Of course he cannot deny that he killed the men. I can prove that he not only killed the men just as I have stated, but actually stripped them almost naked, and then left them in exposed places, unburied! I dare Holden or Kirk to put me to the test. If they do, I will show that they took everything from the body of Marion Ramsey but his shirt; that they shook Presley Blankenship's coat, saturated with blood, at his wife and told her they had taken it from her dead husband, and that they entered the house of Mrs. B. and actually took therefrom the last article of wearing apparel! I will also prove that Kirk notified Mrs. B. that it would not be safe for any one but women to undertake to bury the dead! Let Holden put me to the test, and I will show that these facts are not only true, but that he knew full well they were true when he appointed Kirk Colonel of his State troops! By the way, did not the Standard publish these facts during the war, when they were first known? I ask Joe Holden.

But I have not yet finished. Passing from Madison county to Tennessee by the "Allen Stand" on Laurel, the traveler may see near the Tennessee line, quite a number of human bones yet bleaching on the ground. For a long time their presence where they are was inexplicable. No one could fathom the mystery. But "murder will out;" and I can now tell you how those bones were placed there. They are the bones of some eight or ten boys whom Kirk captured at "Camp Vance." After getting them into Tennessee it is said Kirk allowed a few to escape. Having stopped on their return to North Carolina to get dinner, these unfortunate boys were overtaken by a detachment of Kirk's men and deliberately marched out from the house and shot! Messrs. Benjamin Isaman and Wm. Shelt Ray, of Madison county were present, begging for the boys,—at least they have so stated, and I doubt not, will repeat the statement, if requested so to do. No body in this country, who knows the facts, doubts that Kirk connived at this massacre; and I will tell him, that for some inscrutable reason, the Good Being has terminated the earthly existence of every man who participated in it—save one! May that one live to be lashed with a guilty conscience for a hundred years to come! May that one never cease to hear the words of Lieut. Hal Smith and Lieut. Morgan, "I surrender, I surrender," uttered just before he shot them! Col. Kirk, I ask you whether you did not, with your own hands, shoot Lieut. Smith on Items Creek, after he distinctly and repeatedly told you he would surrender, and whether you did not shoot Lieut. Morgan near Asheville, when he was on his knees with a flag of truce in his hands, begging for mercy! Did you not reply to Morgan, "d—n you, it is too late?" Deny it if you will and I will prove it.

But, Mr. Editor, this article is already too long. As much as I regretted to refer to the bloody scenes through which we passed during the late war, I have felt bound to lay the foregoing facts before the public. Without a knowledge of them it is impossible for the people of the State to form a just estimate of the malignity of Gov. Holden's military movement.

CICERO.

WAR ITEMS.

THE CROWN PRINCE OF SAXONY.

One of the most curious features of the present contest between Germany and France is the fact that the Crown Prince of Saxony is at the head of one of the great armies of the former, and that his commander-in chief is King William of Prussia. Up to the year 1866 the son of old King John, of Saxony, was a bitter opponent of the Prussian Government, a strenuous adherent of Buest's policy, and during the memorable campaign of that year he did all he could, at the head of the Saxon corps, to arrest the progress of the Prussian forces into Bohemia. But after the war was over the Crown Prince suddenly changed his mind. He had surely expected that Prussia, after defeating Saxony so thoroughly, would at least annex to its monarchy that part of the dominions of King John which embraces the city of Leipzig. When he heard that the Kingdom of Saxony was to remain such as it had been previous to the war, the Crown Prince was deeply moved, and became warmly attached to the Royal House of Prussia. This attachment grew into warm friendship for the Crown Prince Frederick William, when, in the month of December, 1866, King John and his son—the two vanquished foes—were, at the pressing invitation of the royal family of Prussia, received by their generous visitors in the most flattering and cordial manner.

Since that time the Crown Prince of Saxony has been the firm friend of Prussia in his father's kingdom.—Cincinnati Commercial.

The Royal family of England is sufficiently represented by its connections in the present war. There are several blood relations of the Queen in the field—on the German side, of course. The Crown Prince is the husband of the Princess Royal of England. Prince Louis, of Hesse, who commands a division, married the Princess Alice, and has received £6,000 a year ever since by way of compensation. The Crown Prince gets £3 000 a year with his wife.

A characteristic gift has been made to the Thirteenth chasseurs regiment of Saxony by the firm of Geissler Brothers, of Meissen, consisting of an order upon the house of Eugene Cliquot, of Rheims, (of champagne fame,) for six bottles of champagne for each officer and one for every private soldier, payable when the Prussian army enters Rheims.

The Postmaster-General at Berlin has issued orders that all letters of French prisoners shall be forwarded free of postage if endorsed by the military employes as such.

The war trophies, consisting of mitrailleurs, cannon, flags and banners, taken on the battle field, are exhibited in the courthouse, Berlin. Prizes are given by the Government for all such trophies obtained. For every cannon, $240 gold; for every flag, $160 gold.

A Mr. Grumberg, of Berlin, has prepared a new kind of food for the use of soldiers in the field. It consists of pea-meal mixed with fat and meat, and made up into sausages, so as to be easily carried. When cooked it forms a highly nutritious food of meat and vegetables combined.

M. E. Ollivier, giving an account of his leave taking with the Empress, said that she shook him warmly by the hand. "And what impression did that produce?" said his friend. "It meant this, I think," said Ollivier, "upon my honor, I am not at all sorry to get rid of you."

W. H. Moore, colored, is spoken of as successor to the late A. H. Galloway as Senator from New Hanover County.

Newbern is tremendously excited over a raffle which is shortly to take place for a 2.37 mare.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" so well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allsop & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 100,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handing of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet: Size Bale 4½ feet x26x28½ins; wt. Bale 400 to 450 lbs.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1870.

BY JOHN N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

We are authorized to announce Mr. William E. Pell, Jr., of this city as a candidate for Reading or Assistant Clerk of the State Senate. Mr. P. has been the Reporter of the SENTINEL in the Senate for several years.

Sept. 2 tf.

We are authorized to announce ROBERT H. HARVEY, formerly of Randolph County but now of this city, as a candidate for Assistant Doorkeeper to the Senate. He is an honest, sober colored man, has been a consistent Conservative from the first, and the Pressman of the SENTINEL for several years.

Capt. J. J. Robinson of Craven, a wheel-horse in the cause of Democracy, we understand will be a candidate for Principal Doorkeeper of the Senate.

BAPTIST MEETINGS.—Considerable revival influence, we are pleased to learn, has been recently enjoyed among the Baptist Churches of this county.

At Mt. Moriah a good meeting resulted in the addition of 43 persons to the Church; at New Hope 30 persons professed faith in Christ; at Forestville 36 persons; at Flat Rock upwards of 20 persons were added to the Church, all the result of protracted meetings. The Baptist Churches of Franklin and Warren have also been visited with the outpouring of the Spirit. The Ministers and Churches have shown a commendable zeal in this good work.

EXHIBITION.—Last night, Metropolitan Hall (over the new Market House,) was thrown open and the public invited to an exhibition of the hall, scenery, &c. We did not attend, but learn that a large crowd of all sexes and colors were present and were much edified by what was shown to them.

All this would be very well if it were not that our citizens are taxed most oppressively to pay for a great deal of the useless finery and ornamental fixings that may be found there.

TURTLE SOUP, ET CETERA.—Feeling a little disinclined to much bodily exercise, yesterday, we concluded, instead of walking the usual quarter-of-a-mile to dinner, to step over and break bread with friend Blacknall at the Yarborough House. We did so, and "hit the nail on the head," for we found the table temptingly spread with the usual variety of meats, vegetables and accompaniment, headed by a smoking tureen of turtle soup, sending forth a "sweet smelling savor" mightily provocative of appetite. We all did eat and were filled, and felt thoroughly satisfied that Blacknall "knows how to keep a Hotel."

The soup was magnificent.

THE PENITENTIARY.—We walked out to the new Penitentiary on Thursday, and spent some hours inside the stockade, looking round and observing the progress of the work &c. To Messrs. Harrison and Louges of the Board of Directors, Mr. Hicks, Assistant Architect, Mr. Grausman, Steward, and Mr. Thompson, Chief Warden or Superintendent, we were indebted for facilities of looking into the internal regulations of the institution, inspecting the work, &c., and lastly, of eating a good substantial dinner, in regard to all of which we cannot speak otherwise than favorably.

Messrs. Coleman & Co., contractors for the stonework of the buildings, are earnestly at work, getting out stone for the foundations and putting down the same. The foundation of the east wing is nearly finished. It is formed by first making a concrete layer of small broken stone, lime and plaister; on that are two courses of large blocks of granite, forming together, a thickness of nearly three feet. The quarry seems to open out well, and the stone we judge to be equal to any in this region of the country. The contractors employ in their department some sixty of the convicts.

The other convicts, except those employed in the cooking and wash rooms, are engaged in the excavation and grading of the grounds and preparing them for the foundations of the buildings. A very large amount of this kind of work has been done.

The entire grounds, cells, hospital, kitchen and wash rooms are properly policed and kept in the neatest order. In every direction are evidences of method, care and economy of management.

The inmates all appeared to be working with a will, as if they are happier and more contented in their present condition than they were before they got in, and we have no doubt they are. From conversation with the officers in regard to the term of servitude of many of the convicts, we are convinced that special legislation is necessary in dating the time of imprisonment in proportion to the various offences. For nearly the same offence, one Judge sentences a criminal to two years, another, to four and, perhaps, another to ten. This, no doubt, will be regulated by law in due time.

HAVE THE WRITS BEEN SERVED?—Writs have been issued against Kirk and others and have been placed in the hands of the proper officers. Have they been served? Has not Kirk been in the city since they were issued. We learn that Kirk is now here (Friday.) Kirk and the rest will seek to make their escape and we warn the officers of the law not to fail in their arrest. These writs ought to have taken Holden. He is the real aggressor—the real conspirator against the liberties of the people and the instigator of the abuses which our people have suffered.

A Colored Literary Association was organized in Wilmington.

A Tainted Atmosphere

Malarious fevers are most prevalent in the fall. Heavy and unwholesome exhalations then arise from the earth, and the great disparity between the temperature of day and night predisposes the system, enfeebled by the summer heats, to epidemic diseases. The secretive organs, the liver especially, are apt, at this period of the year to become inert and sluggish, and all the bodily powers require renovation. The best indeed the only protection against the morbid influences of the season is a wholesome medicated stimulant. Pre-eminent among the restoratives of this class, and indeed foremost among the remedial and preventive medicines of modern times, stands Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Its reputation is co extensive with the Western Hemisphere; it has been a standard article for twenty years; its sales (as may be ascertained by the revenue returns) are far larger than those of any other proprietary preparation on the continent; and the testimony in its favor embraces letters of approval from the most distinguished members of all the learned professions and from well known residents of almost every city in the Union. These are its credentials. To state what it is doing to prevent and assuage the sufferings of the human family would require more space than can be given to the subject here. The dyspeptic, the bilious, the nervous, the weak and emaciated, the desponding, the broken down, find in its renovating and regulating properties a sure and immediate means of relief. It is a pure vegetable specific, at once safe and potent, and for which the whole materia medica affords no substitute

JUDGE BROOKS.

We have fallen upon evil times indeed, when the honest execution of the laws and impartial administration of justice becomes so prominent, by contrast, as to be considered a subject for extraordinary public demonstration and exultation. This was never so before in North Carolina. Always, since our existence as a State, our Judiciary have been honored and respected by the people, and enjoyed the consciousness of possessing and deserving the respect and honor thus bestowed.

We are glad to know that, amidst the corruption, venality, and incompetency characteristic of the Judiciary of the times, there are a few bright, particular examples of the old regime, who stand out like beacon lights amid the surrounding darkness and give some assurance of protection of life and property to the people. It is because of this state of things and the feeling growing out of them, that we publish the following, which in better times and under better circumstances, we should have considered improper and indelicate:

BALTIMORE, MD., Aug. 26, 1870.

Hon. Geo. W. Brooks, U. S. Dist. Judge:

SIR: At a meeting held at the Maltby House in the city of Baltimore, on the 26th of August, 1870, composed of former citizens of North Carolina residing in Baltimore, it was unanimously resolved that a committee be appointed to express to His Honor, the Hon. George W. Brooks, their high appreciation of his fidelity in enforcing the law, in regard to the unwarranted arrest made in the State of North Carolina. With the prompt and decisive action of your Honor, you have elicited the admiration and esteem of all good and law-abiding North Carolinians.

We are very respectfully,
Your obedient servants,

I. W. VICK,
W. S. RAMSEY,
NORFLEET HAWKINS, } Com.
R. R. HARRELL.

OVATION IN HONOR OF JUDGE BROOKS.

One of the proudest events that ever occurred in the history of Elizabeth City, was witnessed on Tuesday evening last, on the arrival of the Steamer, "Thomas Jefferson," from Norfolk.

It had been ascertained from private sources that the family of Judge Brooks expected him on his return from Salisbury, Raleigh, &c, whence he had been called to administer justice in delivering from the hands of the wicked, the many citizens of Caswell and Alamance, who had been arrested and deprived of their liberties by Holden, Kirk and their myrmidons.

Upon late notification of the fact that this great champion of constitutional liberty in North Carolina was expected on Tuesday evening's boat, almost the entire population of the town, including ladies and gentlemen, children and old men, white and black, all turned out on the wharf and along the streets to do him honor and welcome him home. It would have thrilled the hearts of all the lovers of peace, good order and law, to have witnessed the large concourse of people there assembled (notwithstanding the rain) to welcome the Judge and to have heard the unanimous greetings with which he was met. As the Steamer neared the wharf a salute of three heavy guns was given to signalize his arrival. A Committee composed of Dr. R. K. Speed, J. M. Wheelbee, R. F. Overman, W. H. Clark, Jno. S. Burgess, W. A. Price, Timothy Hunter and Jno. J. Grandy, (some of the most intelligent and venerable men in our place) who had been previously appointed, as soon as the boat was made fast to the wharf, proceeded to the Saloon of the Steamer to meet the Judge and acquaint him of the object of the demonstration.—The Committee were not long in making their appearance on the wharf, accompanied by the Judge. They advanced through the pressing crowd, amid the loud huzzas and hearty gratulations of the vast multitude, who sought to do him honor, to a suitable point, when Dr. Speed, after order was restored, in a most eloquent and soul stirring manner, expressed the feelings of the people, and bade him welcome. Like the old musician of Venice, the Doctor touched so delicately and yet so feelingly the tender chords that bind this great man to the people of North Carolina, though he did not "play his auditors to distraction," yet awakened emotions of the noblest kind, that watered many an eye, that quivered many a lip.

Judge Brooks though entering unapprized of any unusual demonstration, with very becoming modesty, so characteristic of the truly great,—and under a full sense of the duties and responsibilities of the exalted position which he so honorably holds, in a few appropriate remarks, returned his thanks for the demonstration of appreciation upon the part of the people of his own home, taking occasion to add that he was prompted to the course he had pursued by a strict sense of duty. He said, in performing what he conceived to be his duty under the law of the land, he had been so fortunate as to call forth the approbation of the entire people of the State, it was a source of pleasant meditation, and especially was it so, to know that the friends of his youth as well as those of his home gave him their hearty approbation. The Judge stated briefly the condition of the prisoners when he reached Salisbury, how they were suffering, some of them denied all shelter, and exposed to the inclemencies of the weather,—miles away from their helpless families, and almost in a state of starvation. While the Judge narrated the trials and troubles of this class of our fellow-citizens, many eyes were filled with tears. I never witnessed anything to equal it in my life, and the immense throng of people there assembled were perfectly still, as if paralyzed with strong emotions. The Judge concluded his remarks amid the loud cheers and shouts of the multitude.

The Judge was conducted by the above named committee to a carriage that had been prepared for him. Three of the committee rode in the carriage that had been prepared for them. The procession was then formed with the Elizabeth City Brass Band at the head, the carriage with Judge Brooks and three of the committee of reception following, the carriage with remainder of the Committee following next, and then the large crowd of citizens formed in double file behind the carriages. After it became known the line had been formed, the band commenced playing a martial air, and the procession moved forward to Main street, thence down Main to Road street, and thence down Road to the residence of his Honor, Judge Brooks. The long procession closed up and halted here, when after a few words of thanks, the Judge retired from the crowd, and went to the house to meet his family who were awaiting to see him. We omitted to mention that all along from the Steamer's wharf, up to the Judge's residence, the ladies were waving their handkerchiefs and throwing him bouquets as he passed. The crowd then dispersed to get ready for the torch light procession at night. Punctually at 8 o'clock, the citizens gathered at Smith's park, and formed in line. A national salute of 36 guns was then fired, when the immense procession, with transparencies, torch lights, flags and banners of all descriptions, started off for the residence of Judge Brooks. Many of our citizens had their houses illuminated, and we noticed in this procession, old gray haired men, carrying torches, and shouting and cheering with the rest, some whom to our knowledge, have not participated in things of this nature for ten or fifteen years. After they reached the residence of Judge Brooks they were addressed by Judge Brooks, Dr. Speed, J. M. Wheelbee, and Col. G. G. Luke of Camden County.

The crowd then quietly dispersed and went to their homes. Nothing to equal it ever occurred in the history of our place, and the event will long be remembered by the people of Elizabeth City.

A DEMOCRATIC ORGAN IN WASHINGTON.

Arrangements have been made for issuing a new and first class daily journal at the Federal capital, with Mr. JAMES E. HARVEY, former minister to Portugal, and previously a veteran writer for the press, as editor. It will be called The Patriot, and the first number will appear on the 14th of November. From the prospectus, which has been sent us, we copy the following summary of the principles the new paper will advocate:

The Patriot will advocate a prompt and perfect restoration of the Union in all its parts and its entire integrity; equality among the States as prescribed by the Constitution; the immediate removal of all disabilities resulting from the civil war; and the restoration of harmony and fraternal fellowship between all sections of the country, which the abuses and usurpations of partisan power have criminally labored to prevent:

A tariff for revenue to cover the expenditures of an economical administration, and to meet the just obligations of the government, as opposed to the existing system of exorbitant protection for special monopolies and undisguised partiality for favored manufacturers:

Reduction of the present odious and oppressive scale of taxation, both as applied to duties on imports and to internal revenue:

Rigid economy in every department of the government and retrenchment of the expenses:

Reform of the public service in all its branches, civil, military, and naval:

A sound national currency equally distributed among the States, and protected against speculative fluctuations:

The rights of intelligent labor, against all selfish combinations to degrade and depreciate it:

Legislation by which the public lands will be reserved for actual settlers, and as a resource of national credit, in opposition to the Radical policy of enormous grants to speculators and corrupt schemes:

The fullest and firmest protection to American citizens abroad:

And cordial sympathy with all peoples struggling for liberty and self government.

MARRIED.

In the Presbyterian church, at Concord, N. C., on the evening of the 6th of Sept., 1870, by the Rev. E. H. Harding, assisted by the Rev. William Barringer, GENERAL RUFUS BARRINGER to Miss MARGARET TAYLOR LONG, daughter of Dr. Osborn Long, deceased.

On the 5th inst., MR. NATHAN BURDY, aged 80 years, led to the hymenal altar, Mrs. MARY THOMAS, aged 66 years. All of Guilford.

Friday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The Cabinet is in session to-day.

Two Foreign Ministers were presented to-day, Fish, Cox and Robeson, are at the Cabinet meeting; the other Departments are represented by subordinates.

It is rumored that the Cabinet will tender peace mediation.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 9.—The bark "Virginia Dare," from Callao, reports a heavy gale off Bermuda on August 31st. She lost her sails, and sustained other damages. The Captain was knocked down by a sea and had his arm broken. The Carpenter, Chas. Toole, was washed overboard.

FOREIGN.

PARIS Sept. 9.—Favre declined the services of the Orleans Princes, and begged them to quit the city for fear of complications. It is again reported that Diplomats at Paris have gone to the King's headquarters in the interest of peace.

Madame Geo. Sands has saluted the new regime.

LONDON Sept. 9.—The Prussian works around Strasburg are nearly completed, but General Uhrich persists in holding the palace. The river Ill has been diverted into the trenches.

A correspondent of the Standard writes from Paris that an English Engineer now there, affirms that the Paris, defences are perfect.

Paris is filled with Garde Mobile, with French and American flags. Washburne was saluted last evening.

Several demonstrations have taken place at Madrid in favor of the United States of Europe.

The Morning Post counsels the Prussians to stop and propose a peace which will reimburse Prussia, but leave no hate rankling in France, otherwise the Post hopes that the French will hold out.

Paris papers refer obscurely to a new murderous engine for the defence of the city. It is reiterated that McMahon is alive and his wound is not necessarily mortal.

The neighborhood of Scissons is still the westernmost point where the Prussians have been seen. There is a great scarcity of printing paper in Paris.

The authorities at Berlin are confident that Russia will withdraw the proposition for conference in view of the persistence of Prussia.—It is reported that owing to the declaration of the French Republic, Austria is arming again.

MARSEILLES, Sept. 9.—Many members of the former Police have been arrested as spies. A band of women employed in the Tobacco Factories paraded the streets, singing the Marseillaise. The authorities are taking measures to prevent disorder.

Friday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The usual speeches were exchanged by the President and Ministers Jaquin Godoy from Chili and Santiago Kerse from Columbia. Erasmus D'Kramer has been Appointed Minister to Denmark. The President remains absent till October.

The Pensacola and Shenandoah ship canal survey fleet, under Capt. Shufeldt, consisting of the steamer "Kansas" the tug "Maudeer" and a steam launch, sails early in October. Commodore Thos. A. Jenkins has been made Rear Admiral.

The Cabinet to-day considered the proposition of joining European powers in order to produce peace between France and Prussia, but came to the conclusion to send a telegram to our Minister at Berlin, which has been done to the effect that this government cannot act in this connection, with other nations, but if its good offices shall be requisite, it will be happy to lend them to bring peace to the two Great Powers, with whom we have traditional friendship.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The Telegram's special dispatch from Paris, says that the Prussians are advancing rapidly. Their cavalry is within 10 miles of the fortifications, and have cut the Northern Railway. The main Prussian army is 50 miles distant.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—The steamship "Fanragunt" collided with the "Ketch," near Anacapa, No. 2 sea and both vessels foundered and 14 are lost.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—The reported action of diplomats at Paris in favor of peace is emphatically denied.

Rochefort's letter denouncing the violence at Marseilles had good effect on the workmen, who consider him their particular representative, and who agree with him that this is no time to create disturbance.

Women and children only are allowed to leave Strasburg. The Prussian fire is incessant, but apparently without result. A practical breach is impossible under a fortnight.

Diplomatic notes of the most decided character have been sent from the English and Russian cabinets, suggesting terms likely to be acceptable to both parties. The notes claim that the present moment is opportune and will avoid the irritation which would attach to negotiations after the bombardment of Paris. Queen Victoria addressed a note to Augusta, Queen of Prussia begging her to use her influence to bring about this consummation.

PARIS, Sept. 9.—The Observatory has been dismantled and the instruments moved to a place of safety. Trochu issued a proclamation ordering the members of the Garde Mobile to their posts. The honor of defending the ramparts is entrusted to them.

Garibaldi has offered his services to the French. A corps of Foreign volunteers has been organized, called the "Friends of France."

Many thousand Gardes Mobile arrived to-day from Marne and Normandy.

A decree has been issued convoking the Electoral College on the 16th of October next, to choose members of the National Assembly in accordance with the law of 1849.

Favre's reply to Washburn is published. He considers it a happy augury that the first recognition comes from the United States, whose Constitution is founded upon independence and civil virtue.

The following is Washburn's address to the serenade: "I thank you on the part of my government. I shall have great pleasure in transmitting the thanks you express for the recognition of the new Republic. In my communications, to which you make such kind reference, I have but made known the sentiments of the President and people of the United States, who take a profound interest in the movement just inaugurated, and will desire most fervently its success, and the happiness and prosperity of the French people. Existing themselves under a Republican government, they know how to appreciate its benefits. With warm hearts and language they solicit to their former allies on the accomplishment of a peaceful revolution, free from blood shed and claiming the sympathy of all lovers of true liberty."

BERLIN, Sept. 9.—After a protracted conference the members of the North German Confederation decided the French provinces of Alsace and Loraine must be annexed to Germany, not to Prussia individually.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 9.—The semi-official journal iterative to Favre's address says: "France carries patriotism too far, if rather than yield forts and soil no longer valuable, it invokes a war of extermination. Prussia will naturally accept double guarantees to secure its noble victories. It is difficult to appreciate the language of Favre when he asserts that the cause of France against Prussia, is the cause of justice and right, when only in July the language was precisely the reverse."

BANKER CIGARS.

PUFF OF SATISFACTION.—Nothing is more grateful than the solace of a good-flavored and free-smoking cigar. Such are Mohegan's Bankers, the best cigars for their price in the country. They have become so universally popular in North Carolina, in Raleigh particularly, that all the inveterate smokers are breaking their pipes.

We honestly think two boxes of Mohegan's Bankers might be induced to influence even Grant to compassion in regard to the suffering Cubans.

We recommend the Bankers, and know whereof we affirm, for as we write we are consoled with the proud satisfaction of puffing one, and enjoy it hugely.—Norfolk Journal.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!

No more Smoke!—No more Grease!

No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1865.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

Testimonials without number from citizens of this, as well as those of other States might be published, but the above is sufficient. Any person having the light can make 8 to 10 bbls., of the Fluid in an hour.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1868 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1867 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, good skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the Brooklyn Life.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all their really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted, claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.
